What comes under the head of these two words, Luxuries or Necessities, in the line of House Furnishing Goods. In the latter case, only those things that are actually necessary for ordinary housekeeping. In the former, all those things which have a tendency to beautify a house and not only make it comfortable, but elegant as well. Some years ago, as you will often hear older people say, "When we went to housekeeping we only had this and that, only the bare necessities of life," because, when they bought the goods they had to pay cash for them. But now look at the advantages offered young people, and old people too, in furnishing a home. We are recognized as the originators of the

All Demands of the Punxsutawnev Miners Absolutely Refused.

THE STRIKE WILL BE CONTINUED.

An Argument for Goff Before the West Virginia Legislature.

TURKEYS SIX WEEKS WITHOUT FOOD.

All of the Live News From Surrounding Communities in Three States.

The miners at Punxsulawney have made further propositions to the company, but all were declined. It was then resolved to fight until the bitter end. The attorney of General Goff argued in favor of his client in the Gubernatorial contest before the Legislature

PAPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 PUNNSUTAWNEY, January 23 .- The report recently became current that if the striking employes of the Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburg Coal Company at Walston and Adrian would send a committee of miners independent of the Knights of Labor to the officials of the company a settlement might be reached. A meeting was accordingly held at Adrian last night, and a committee of four appointed to wait upon General Manager Haskell. A mass meeting was held at the Opera House in this place this afternoon, to hear the report of the committee. It was largely attended, there being about 1,000 men present, all hoping that the long strike would soon be at an end, but they were doomed to disappointment. The committee's report was to the effect, Mr. Haskell had refused to make any concessions whatever; that it was out of power to do so and that the only terms any concessions whatever; that it was out of his power to do so, and that the only terms upon which he was authorized to permit them to resume work was as individuals without conceding any of their demands, and that a portion of the men would not be taken back at all.

The committee asked Mr. Haskell that if they would waive all other demands, would the company pay for clay venus. Mr. Haskell said not, and that his instructions were to yield nothing. The report was then received and the committee discharged. Speeches followed by Miners' Agent Quinlisk and others. Quinlisk said that it had been reported that he stood in the way of a settlement, but this proved the contrary. He did not care whether he or the original committee of the Knights of Labor, or the men themselves made the settlement. All he wanted was the men back to work on reasonable terms. The Columbus Convention was considering their case and they would get assistance from miners all over the country. After speeches by other miners in which the company's actions were strongly condemned and a determination expressed to remain out, if need be, the question was put whether or not they should stand by their original resolutions, and it was unanimously decided that the fight continue until the company asks for a conference.

A BIG BUNKO GAME.

The Ancient Gold Brick Scheme Worked in an Artistic Manner.

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR. LIMA, O., January 28,-Mr. Clarke Adams, a wealthy resident of Covington, O., a prosper ous town 20 miles south of here, was bunkoed out of $5,500 by the gold brick game. The stranger gamed Mr. Adams' confidence by claiming to be the son of an old friend of Adams named Watson, who had removed to Arizona several years ago, and said he had come into possession of some valuable mines by the death of his father. He persuaded Adams to accompany him to a snot near the fair grounds, where he had the gold burled, having brought a geouine Indian with him, who was found guarding the spot where the who was found guarding the spot where the gold was buried.

The gold was dug up and carried to town for examination. At the hotel was registered J. C. Cook, United States Assayer, who, of course, was an entire stranger to Mr. Watson. The gold brick was examined by Mr. Cook, who at once pronounced it genuine. Mr. Adams, it seems, was thoroughly convinced, and going to the bank, drew out $5.500 in currency, which he gave to Watson and received the brick in security to hold until Mr. Watson could reach his Western home, when the amount would be his Western home, when the amount would be returned. It was one of the slickest tricks ever turned in this part of Ohio.

MERINO SHEEP BREEDERS

Of the United States Arxions to Improve

Their Stock. PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. STEUBENVILLE, O., January 23 .- The annual meeting of the United States Merino Sheep Breeders' Registry Association, which met here yesterday, adjourned to-day. The meeting was largely attended, and 15 new members were added to the association. This association, which got well upon its feet at Columbus in water got well upon its reet at Cottabus in 1873, is distinguished as being the first blood registry association for sheep in this or any other country. Its objects are to keep the registry and records of the pedigree of blooded merino sheep: to promote their purity and im-provement; to disseminate valuable informa-tion concerning the same; to examine flocks of tion concerning the same; to examine flocks of sheep whose owners desire their registry, and in proper cases to admit them and furnish cerin proper cases to admit them and furnish certificates of their pedigrees and registration.

The discussion at this meeting indicated that the members are for pure blood first, last and all times. The report of the Secretary and Treasurer showed about $500 in the treasury.
The following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing year: President, Wm. L. Archer, Burgetistown, Pa.; First Vice President, C. H.
Beall, Independence, Pa.; Second Vice President, C. Bowman, Elston, O.; Secretary, A. E.

SIX WEEKS IN A BOX.

Two Turkeys Survive That Long Without Obtnining Any Food.

SEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH ! WASHINGTON, PA., January 23.-Six weeks ago two turkeys belonging to Thomas Clark, of Meadow Lands, this county, disappeared rather mysteriously. There was nothing very strange or startling about that, as that was just before Christmas and the fowls were in fine condition and capable of tickling the palate of any person. A few days ago, Mr. Clark says, he found the tarkeys under a large box in a field, where they had been for six weeks without food or

It is supposed the box was blown over them during a wind storm. The turkeys were rather thin, but are said to be picking up flesh rapidly and are expected to be in their old-time form by next Christmas—possibly by Thanksgiving if the weather is favorable.

Peculiar Accident at a Shooting Match In Center County. SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. BELLEFONTE, PA., January 23.-A fatal aceident occurred near Snowshoe this evening about 5 o'clock. Several men were amusing themselves shooting at a mark which they had placed on a tree near by. The mark was shot away, when one of the men named Stachick stopped up to replace it. Another by the name of Mike Bordner called out: "What a fine shāt!"

"Shoot away?" said Stachlek. Bordner shot, and Stachlek fell dead with a bullet through his brains. It was said by the others to have been an accident, as there was no ill-feeling between the two men.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR.

Dedication of the Pennsylvania Memoria Home for Disabled Soldiers. ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BROOKVILLE, PA., January 23.-The formal pening and dedication of the Pennsylvania Memorial Home for disabled soldiers, their wives and widows took place here to-day. The property is widely known as the famous Long-view Hotel tract, containing about 34 acres, purchased recently by the State for the above purpose at a cost of $35,000. The building will accommodate over 100 people, and is supplied with all modern improvements. Among the minent persons present were Hon. Thomas prominent persons present were Hon. Thomas J. Stewart, Department Commander of the Pennsylvania Grand Army; Senator A. F.

Thompson, of Lykens, Pa.; Major Isaac B,
Brown, Deputy Secretary of Internal Affairs, Harrisburg; W. N. Jones, Williamsport, and Captain Wright, Smethport, Pa.

The Women's Relief Corps of Pennsylvania, which organization purchased the Home, was largely represented, among those present being Mrs. Annie Wittenmeyer, National President; Mrs. Abbie Lynch, Secretary, and Mrs.
Helen Morrison, President of the Department of Pennsylvania. The banquet provided by the local Women's Relief Corps was a splendid affair, and was participated in and enjoyed by nearly 350 visitors and citizens. The ceremony closed to-night with an old-time campfire. Governor Beaver was expected to be present, but on account of official business was unable to attend.

GOFF'S SIDE OF THE CASE

Presented to the West Virginia Legislature by His Attorney. [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] CHARLESTON, W. VA., January 23.—The Legislature re-assembled as a high court to decide the Gubernatorial matter at 10 o'clock this morning, there being, if anything, a larger crowd in attendance than yesterday. Mr. W P. Hubbard, of Wheeling, counsel for General Goff, began his argument immediately upon the body's convening, and spoke for about five hours, there being a recess at noon. His pre-sentation of the case of his client was even more eloquent and forcible than that of Judge Johnson for Judge Fleming on Wednesday. In the course of his references to the majority re-port Mr. Hubbard said it could not be expected that counsel could consider each of the hun-dreds of cases in detail. The report must be taken as a whole, and if false as to particular taken as a whole, and if false as to particular faces it could have no weight.

He charged that the main tenor and purpose of Judge Johnson's argument was not so much directed to the law and the facts in the case as in the hope of keeping the Democratic members of the Legislature in line and with an unbroken front. It was an appeal to political prejudice rather than to reason. In presenting the claims of the minority of the investigation committee Mr. Hubbard was clear and forcible, and was listened to with the closest attention by all.

CESSNA OUT FOR CONGRESS.

Rumored That Sepator Quay Will Smile Upon His Aspirations. PERCHAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE ! BEDFORD, January 28 .- A bomb was thrown among the Republican leaders here to-day when a well-verified rumor was set affoat that ex-Congressman John Cessna was going to be a candidate for the Congressional nomination. Uncle John, when seen by the correspondent

Uncle John, when seen by the correspondent to-day, refused to talk about the matter at all, and when asked to say whether it should be denied: "I will not say I am not a candidate for the Congressional nomination, neither will I say that I am, but I will say that my friends know what they are doing."

Several of Mr. Cessua's friends said, however, that he would be in the fight when the time came. It is said that the reason that the ex-Congressman has concluded to be a candidate was brought about by the actions of Congressman Scull, who lately has been acting with the independent movement that has been forming in the western part of the State. Whether Uncle John has been advised by Senator Quay to retire Scull to private life has not been made known.

AN EPISODE IN COURT.

The Prosecuting Attorney Fined $20 and Ordered Out of Court. [SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] WHEELING, W. VA., January 28 -Quite an exciting little episode took place in the Circuit. Court this afternoon. The case of the State of West Virginia against Rodney Dickerson, indicted for assaulting an II-year-old girl named Fiorence Wilson, of Pittsburg, on April 19 last, was on trial, and George McLaughlin was called for the State. On examination by Prosecuting Attorney Howard witness denied having assured the prosecutor he would tell a certain story. In an attempt by Mr. Howard to pin down the witness, counsel for the defense objected.

Mr. Howard, laboring under great excitement, made a violent appeal for a fair show. The Court admonished him to desist, but, not beeding the warning. Mr. Howard was fined $20 and ordered from the court room.

They have occupied the attention of the court here for occupied the attention of the court here for several days, and to-day the jury brought in a double verdict, giving each of the principals damages. The suit grew out of an assault and battery over two years ago, in which Jones had his arm broken, and has been brought up at every term of court since.

The jury gave Redd $1 and Jones $400 damages. Redd's attorney, filed a motion that judgment without costs be entered against the defendants. The motion will be argued at the March term.
